

POLYGAMY DYING OUT, SAYS JUDGE

The snow frozen with it, made it poor. There is a woman tramp going the rounds hereabout, that is creating some uneasiness. She appears at times to be crazy. When asked where she is from, she answers, "I am from Virginia." Here, however, near North Carolina. She secures a place to work, and in a day or two she will pick up her basket and leave during the night, and a few miles distant seek work again.

I am told the illegal sellers of whiskey are afraid of her, thinking she is just seeking evidence against them. Her clothes and conduct are so outrageous, accidentally by some, place her sex in doubt.

A light fall of snow, last night.

New Engine House.

night requested the Finance Committee to include in the budget for 1906 an item of $15,000 for a new engine company, a No. 3 truck house near Lombardy and Broad Streets.

perity. The entire community pledged by public sentiment and private act to restore to each man his ancient right to life, liberty, freedom and the pursuit of happiness.

Other cities will be driven to protect their work people, merchants and citizens, as well as their industries from the blight of strikes, violence and the losses brought on by labor unionism run amuck, by adopting the "Battle Creek plan," but this city offers industrial peace now with cheap coal and good water, first-class railroad facilities and the best grade of fair, capable and peaceable mechanics known.

Identification.

The public should remember that there are a few Labor Unions conducted on peaceful lines, and in proportion as the are worthy, they have won esteem, for we, as a people, are strongly in sympathy with any right act that has for its purpose better conditions for wage workers. But we do not forget that we seek the good of all and not those alone who b long to some organization, whereas even the law-abiding unions show undeniable evidences of tyranny and oppression when they are strong enough, while many of the unions harbor and encourage criminals in their efforts to force a yoke of slavery upon the American people.

As a public speaker lately said: "The arrogance of the English King that roused the fiery eloquence of Otis, that inspired the immortal declaration of Jefferson; that left Warren dying on the slopes of Bunker Hill was not more outrageous than the conditions that a close shop would force upon the community. Those men burst into rebellion when the King did but touch their pockets."

Imagine if you can their indignant protest had he sought to prohibit or restrict their occupation or determine the conditions under which they should earn the livelihood," and to assault, beat and murder them, blow up their houses and poison their food if they did not submit.

The public should also remember that good true American citizens can be found in the unions and that they denounce the criminal acts of their fellow members, but they are often in danger

Salt only hurts sore spots. So, the honest, law-abiding union man is not hurt when the criminals are denounced, but when you hear a union man "holler" because the facts are made public, he has branded himself as either one of the law-breakers or a hypocrite.

A short time ago inquiry came from the union forces to know if Mr. Pogue would "keep still" if they would call off the boycott on Postum and Grape-Nuts.

This is the reply: "The labor trust has seen fit to try to ruin our business because we would not join its criminal conspiracy. We are plain American citizens and differ from the labor union people in that we do not force people to strike."

"We do not pay thugs $20 to break the ribs of any man who tries to support his family nor $30 for an eye knocked out.

"We try to show our plain, honest regard for sturdy and independent workmen by paying the highest wages in the State.

"We have a steady, unvarying respect for the law abiding, peaceable union man and a more earnest desire to see him gain power enough to purge the nation of their criminal practices that has brought down upon them the righteous denunciation of a long suffering and outraged public, but we will not fawn, truckle, bend the knee, wear the labeled collar of white slavery, the union label, nor prostitute our American citizenship under 'orders' of any labor trust.

"Your offer to remove the restriction of our business and with 'union' gold choke the throat and still the voice raised in stern denunciation of the despotism which

"You would gag us with a silver ear and muffle the appeal to the American people to harken to the cries for bread of the little children whose faithful fathers were beaten to death while striving to earn food for them.

"Your boycott may perhaps succeed in throwing our people out of work and driving us from business, but you cannot wrench from us that priceless jewel our fathers fought for and which every true son guards with his life. Therefore, speaking for our work people and ourselves the infamous offer is declined."
